

You're Invited

March 4-8, 2022 • Virtually, Everywhere!

As a valued member of the prostate cancer community, you are invited to attend the ZERO Prostate Cancer Summit. You won't want to miss this annual event to come together with thousands of other patients, survivors, caregivers, and loved ones from across the country to connect, celebrate, and learn from experts and each other.

This virtual event will include informative educational sessions, support and networking opportunities, honors and awards, and advocacy initiatives which you will be able to access via computer or smartphone from any location.

"It is so inspiring to be surrounded with other people all touched by the same disease and fighting so hard to end prostate cancer! Hearing everyone's personal story makes me even more dedicated to do what I can to help."

— 2021 ZERO Summit Participant

March 4: Awards Ceremony and Kickoff

The Summit starts with our Bold for Blue Awards Ceremony honoring our community and recognizing those who are making a significant impact in the fight to end prostate cancer. This celebratory event will be hosted by Jay Jay French, guitarist for Twisted Sister and prostate cancer survivor.

March 5-6: Interactive Educational Sessions

Join experts who will provide the latest developments in the topics you care about the most.

March 7: Networking and Support

Various support groups and networking lounges will meet to offer fellowship, support, and resources. After almost two years into a pandemic, human connections are more important than ever.

March 8: Advocacy Day

Advocates will virtually meet and share their stories with their elected officials on the importance of increasing funding for the Prostate Cancer Research Program to $120M and other prostate cancer priorities.
